Course Overview

Honours Degree programmes with integrated Foundation Years aim to increase opportunities for access to higher education for diverse applicants who do not meet the UCAS tariff or equivalent admissions criteria for Level 4 entry to the programme concerned.

The institution recognises that criteria for admission to extended degree programmes with an integrated foundation year will be set by Schools in conjunction with our recruitment and admissions staff with due regard for subject specific considerations and the University's strategies for access and participation more generally. Details of specific admissions criteria will be confirmed in the Course Specifications of individual programmes at the point of validation.

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate development of subject knowledge and understanding through their experience of a range of subject specific modules which provide targeted foundation learning for successful transition to Level 4.
2. Demonstrate development of a range of academic skills which will prepare them for degree level study.
3. Demonstrate development of skills and understanding relating to employability in the context of their degree programme.
4. Have the opportunity to be able to be mentored and then to become peer mentors.

Teaching and Learning Activities

Summary

Foundation Year modules will be delivered using lectures, seminars and tutorials with each standard 20 credit point module delivering a minimum of 48 hours of scheduled staff/ student contact time. Students will undertake an additional 152 hours of guided independent study during each module. There will be double the time for the 40 credit module.

Specific learning and teaching approaches and activities will be defined in the Course Specifications which relate to the Extended Degree programmes concerned and will be informed by the context and expectations within the given subject area. A full range of assessments both formative and summative will prepare students for future assessment activities.

Learning Support

If you have a question or a problem relating to your course, your Course Administrator is there to help you. Course Administrators works closely with academic staff and can make referrals to teaching staff or to specialist professional services as appropriate. They can give you a confirmation of attendance letter, and a transcript. You may also like to contact your Course Rep or the Students' Union Advice team for additional support with course-related questions.

If you have any questions about life at our University in general, call into or contact the Student Hub on either campus to speak to our Student Experience Team. This team, consisting of recent graduates and permanent staff, are available to support you throughout your time here. They will make sure you have access to and are aware of the support, specialist services, and opportunities our University provides. There is a Student Hub on the ground floor of the Rose Bowl at City Campus and one in Campus Central at Headingley. You can also find the team in the Gateway in the Leslie Silver Building at City Campus. The telephone number is 0113 812 3000, and the e-mail address is StudentHub@leedsbeckett.ac.uk.

Within MyBeckett you will see two tabs (Support and Opportunities) where you can find online information and resources for yourselves. The Support tab gives you access to details of services available to give you academic and personal support. These include Library Services, the Students' Union, Money advice, Disability advice and support, Wellbeing, International Student Services and Accommodation. There is also an A-Z of Support Services, and access to online appointments/registration.

The Opportunities tab is the place to explore the options you have for jobs, work placements, volunteering, and a wide range of other opportunities. For example, you can find out here how to get help with your CV, prepare for an interview, get a part-time job or voluntary role, take part in an international project, or join societies closer to home.

Course Overview

Aims

The aims of the programme are to:

1. Prepare students for graduate professional roles in a range of settings related to children
2. Engage students in creative and contemporary teaching and learning that is informed by different academic disciplines, research and professional perspectives related to childhood and youth.
3. Engage students with developing ideas and approaches in the context of social change, social justice and children's rights.
4. Enhance student commitment to child centred practice and equality to enable them to act in the best interests of children
5. Develop reflective, critically informed and confident professionals with the relevant academic skills to be able to question and enhance childhood practice.

Course Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1	Be ready to enter graduate employment or further postgraduate study, and make a positive contribution to services for children
2	Demonstrate extensive knowledge of contemporary ideas which reflect a multi-disciplinary approach to childhood, including relevant policies and services.
3	Demonstrate critical analysis of complex issues, and reflect upon a value-position based on social justice and a commitment to child rights within a global context.
4	Confidently use their knowledge, professional skills and personal attributes to promote equality and child-centred practice.
5	Demonstrate university-level study skills such as consistent academic writing, research skills, confident use and critical analysis of literature and digital sources, presentation and reflection to develop effective practice within a graduate career pathway with or for children.

Teaching and Learning Activities

Summary

Learning opportunities are provided through a variety of activities, including tutor led lectures, guest lectures, student-led seminars, tutor-led seminars, tutorials, self-directed learning tasks, and a virtual learning environment. Specialist bespoke study skills support is embedded into the programme and delivered by the expert subject librarian. The combination of learning activities from a variety of specialised staff, as well as access to excellent teaching facilities provides an outstanding and varied learning environment suited to achieving the programme aims and learning outcomes. While much of the learning and teaching is delivered in a traditional, face-to-face, class-based fashion as the course's academic, social science base dictates, students can also expect off site visits to relevant settings, a variety of outdoor and creative learning opportunities together with practical hands on sessions. The virtual learning environment (currently called MyBeckett) enhances this contact through supplementary material and other forms of engagement.

These activities fulfil the requirement of the principle of developing “An Inclusive Environment” as set out in the Course Development Principles handbook by being non-discriminatory, appropriate to the needs of individual learners, and transparent. For example:

- Materials used reflect perspectives and experiences of marginalised groups.
- An environment is encouraged where students can air their views and explore those of others with confidence and security.
- Reasonable adjustments are made in response to different learning needs.
- Critical thinking and academic reading exercises are required to challenge ‘common sense’ assumptions.

For each 20-credit module taught, students can expect a minimum of 36 hours of contact time with a tutor, supplementing the remaining 164 hours of independent study with support from a range of staff from the university such as academic librarians, learning technologists and student liaison officers.
